New from Knowledge Services!

EVIDENCE SEARCH AND SUMMARY SERVICE

Do you need evidence to support local and national clinical decisions, service improvement and policy making? Then we've got great news!

From November 2015, the national network of Knowledge Services staff across Scotland will be working together to offer their specialist expertise in sourcing and summarising evidence as a national service. The network will respond to your requests for evidence with tailored expert searches and summaries.

Access to this coordinated evidence search and summary service is free, requires no password and will be available via The Knowledge Network or your local NHS Board knowledge service.

Watch this space or follow us on Twitter for updates @KnowNetScotland. If you'd like to know more about how to access this service, email Michelle Reilly: michelle.reilly@nes.scot.nhs.uk

Health Literacy Place website

You might remember from last month's special Health Literacy edition that we were launching the Health Literacy Place website. We're very pleased to say the launch went off without a hitch and was very well attended by staff from all walks of life! Many thanks to everyone who came along and made it such an enjoyable day and don't forget to check out the new website, the "Go to" place for health literacy tools and support in Scotland.

If you'd like to be an active health literacy supporter, or find out more about health literacy, please contact lindsey.murphy@nes.scot.nhs.uk

And remember to add the Health Literacy tag to your People Connect profile to connect with other supporters!

We tweet every day to keep you up-to-date with campaigns in health and social care. Follow us for links to Knowledge Network resources that can support your interests and work - eJournals, eBooks, websites and more!
